

BRW Lab

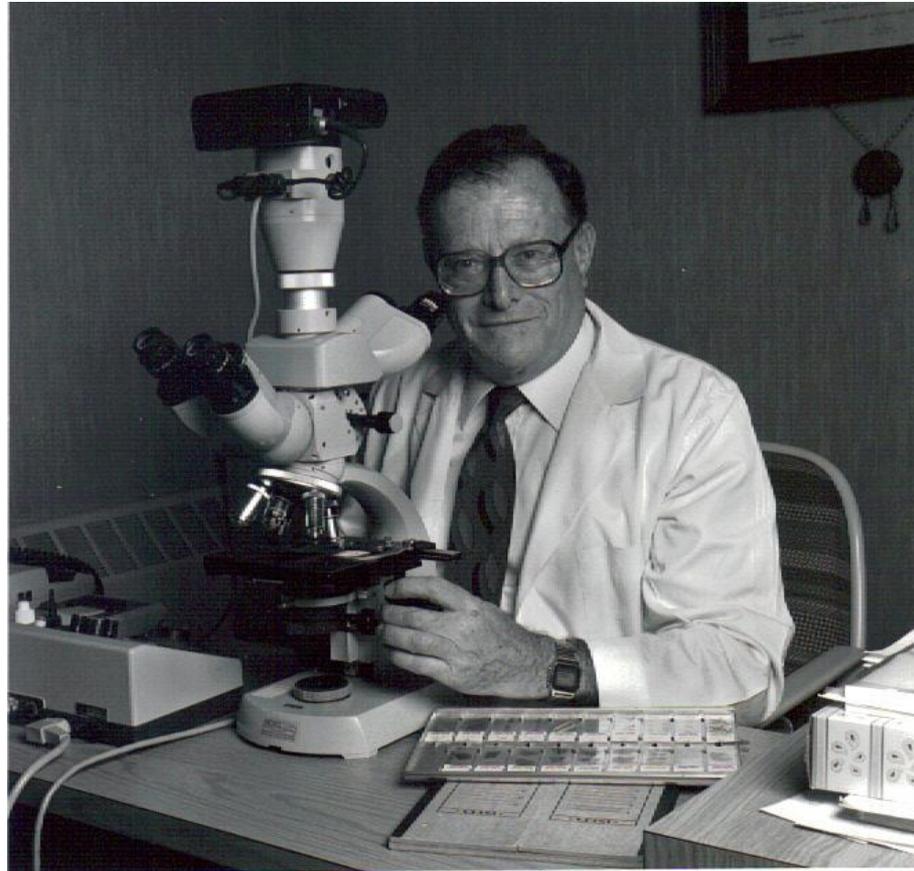

Biological Rhythms & Wellbeing

Erhard Haus

Photos courtesy Linda Sackett-Lundeen and the Haus family

Erhard at his Microscope

Erhard at his Desk (2012)

TWO GREAT PIONEERS

Two great pioneers in the field of Chronobiology discussing their favorite topic: Biological Rhythms or maybe their next project together – Franz Halberg (left) and Erhard Haus (right)

Erhard in the New Lobby of Regions Hospital (2012)

National Science Foundation Conference (2012)

May 2012 photograph taken by Linda Sackett-Lundeen (Erhard's Associate and Research Coordinator for four decades) in the bar area of the hotel hosting participants of the National Science Foundation-funded conference on the modern history of chronobiology held at the University of Minnesota.

Left to right: standing are Erhard Haus and Michael Smolensky (The University of Texas at Austin) and seated are Diana Ayala and Ramon Hermida (University of Vigo, Vigo, Spain) and Yvan Touitou and Alain Reinberg (Fondation A. de Rothschild, Paris, France), all long-time collaborators and close friends.

Erhard with his mother, Marianne Haus, MD (Pediatrician)

Erhard and Gerry's Nine Children at Randy's Wedding

Standing (left to right): Ken, John, Randy, Marcus, Richard
Seated: Marianne, Toni, Connie, Carolyn

Family photo

August 2010 summertime family gathering at the home of Gerry and Erhard Haus in Scandia situated north of St. Paul, Minnesota. The photograph shows 35 of the 46 Haus family members standing in the cool water of the St. Croix River that runs behind the property. Erhard is in the center standing behind his grandchildren and his wife Gerry is on his right side.

The silly side of Erhard

Haus Family Crest

